

RESIDENTIAL LINE

Solid End Bunk Bed

The solid end bunk bed features a single-piece end panel construction for strength and durability.

Solid End Bed

The solid end bed is shown with the three-drawer bed box option.

Platform Beds

The platform bed is constructed of red oak hardwood and red oak fiber core plywood foot and head panels. As shown, the platform bed has three roomy drawers beneath the mattress platform to make the most of available space. The optional headboard is also featured. The platform bed is also available with or without the headboard and drawer unit.

Beds

Make any room a home with our Residential Line Beds. The Residential Line is built to provide many years of service even in the heavy use conditions of social service settings. All pieces are constructed of red oak hardwood rails, with red oak veneer core plywood foot and head panels. Residential Line Beds are available in three standard finishes; Natural, English Oak, and Early American.

All corners are rounded to eliminate sharp edges and the wood box accommodates a 36" x 80" mattress. Ladder comes standard with all Solid End Bunk Beds.

Please ask about our line of mattresses, pillows, desks, wardrobes and dressers.
